

WV Pawpaw Festival

at WVU Core Arboretum

---

celebrating a native fall fruit of the forest

---

Saturday, September 28, 12:00-5:00 pm

Free and open to the public, family-friendly, free parking available at adjacent WVU Coliseum parking lot

WVU Core Arboretum lawn area (inside Guthrie Loop Trail, near parking lot)

- /// Peterson Pawpaws specially selected pawpaw fruits of multiple varieties will be available for everyone to sample and purchase
- /// Chef Marion Ohlinger from Hill and Hollow restaurant will prepare several pawpaw dishes for public tasting
- /// Pawpaw Expert and Author Andrew Moore will present a talk about his book Pawpaw: In search of America's Forgotten Fruit and sell copies of his book at 3:00 pm
- /// North American Pawpaw Growers Association will have a booth at the festival with lots of great information
- /// Pawpaw trees and other native plants will be available to purchase
- /// Live music will be presented by Mon Hills Records with artists including Buffalo Run and more to be announced soon
- /// Food trucks and will be parked in the Arboretum parking lot, please use the WVU Coliseum parking lot to park

The 2024 WV Pawpaw Festival at WVU Core Arboretum is supported and made possible by WVU Department of Biology, WVU Core Arboretum Endowment, WVU Center for Community Engagement, and recent donations to the Arboretum. Thank you to all who support the mission of WVU Core Arboretum!

---